Short Water Supply Stops N. Y. Troop Concentration.

Oklahoma Objects to Moving State Camp to Chandler.

New York, June 32 .- The movement of additional regiments of the New York National Guard to Camp Whit-man at Beekman, N. Y., the mobilizing site for state troops, was halted today site for state troops, was halted today in compliance with orders from Maj. Cen. John F. O'Ryan, in order that the water supply at the camp should be completed before their arrival. Two regiments already are at the camp and eleven others are awaiting orders and eleven others are awaiting orders.

Need Military Cooks.

1 p to this morning Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, commanding the Department of the East, had received official notice that only two troops of cavalry and two regiments of infantry were mobilized in the whole department covering twenty-one states and extending from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico along the Atlantic coast.

Each Regiment 1,000 Short.

General Wood said the need of a General Wood said the need of a Cooks are our greatest problem," declared several commanders.

New Mexican Forces Arrive.

General Wood said the need of a regular army reserve corps was clearly demonstrated. He added he was informed that the troops in camp are only up to peace strength, which means that each regiment was about 1,000 men short of war strength. He regarded it as likely that the same shortage existed in all the states of his department which would mean that all the regiments would have to recruit and drill men before they would be ready for service.
